The NRRB's original intent was for the 40 pages to include text, figures and tables. However, the Region 2 representative recalls a past submission that had 40 pages of text, followed by numerous appendices. So, while the NRRB would like to encourage you to make the 40 pages include everything, there will be no penalty if you don't.

Are figures and table part of the 40 page limit or in addition?
